Participant/Parent Behavioral League Form

_____ (Arrowhead H.S. participant's name) has permission to participate in the Intramural Mini-Golf during the 2011-12 school year.

My student and I have reviewed all of the school policies and understand the consequences for breaking these policies.

I, the participant, will follow these guidelines as well as the league rules (listed on the back) while participating in this activity and do understand that if I break these rules, that the athletic department may ask me to discontinue participating in this league. I also understand that with these actions I may be on probation for further activities and trips.

I, the undersigned, do hereby agree to allow the participant named herein to participate in the program indicated. I am aware of and understand that there is an inherent risk of injury with participation in any recreation activity. Primary insurance coverage is the responsibility of the student's family.

All players must be in good standing at Arrowhead including the grade policy not having 2 or more F's on the most recent grading period. This is the same policy used for all Arrowhead sports and co-curriculars
