“A” Day

The word of the week is dejected--an adjective meaning depressed.

Is school stressing you out this Holiday Season? Is Math giving you problems? Come to the North Campus Library to work with the SASS Math Tutors. Tutoring is available in the North Campus Library on Tuesdays and Thursdays starting at 6:45 AM and continuing through the end of 10th hour. Take control of those math problems before you leave for Christmas break by working with one of the fabulous SASS Math Tutors.

Our annual winter blood drive is tomorrow. Consider donating in the spirit of giving and help save up to 3 lives that day. Today is the last day to sign up at both lunches!

Attention all students who want to give back this holiday season: Student Senate's Giving Tree is going on until tomorrow. Grab a tag from the Christmas tree in the North Campus Commons and return your gift with your tag to the North Campus library by December 8th. Check out the posters around school or by the tree for more information. Help out a family this holiday season & donate to the Giving Tree today!
