"B" Day

The Word of the Week is esoteric (es-uh-ter-ik), an adjective that means understood by or meant for people with special knowledge or interest.

Book Club will meet tomorrow at 2:45 in room 164 at north campus. Join us for some holiday cheer and to talk about "Alias Grace" by Margaret Atwood.

Is school stressing you out this Holiday Season? Is Math giving you problems? Come to the North Campus Library to work with the SASS Math Tutors. Tutoring is available in the North Campus Library on Tuesdays and Thursdays starting at 6:45 AM and continuing through the end of 10th hour. Take control of those math problems before you leave for Christmas break by working with one of the fabulous SASS Math Tutors.

Attention psych club: Our next meeting is on Monday, December 18 at 2:45 in room N189. We will be learning about hypnosis from guest speaker Paul Knight. There will also be a demonstration for those who want to be hypnotized. If you're interested in being hypnotized and are under 18 years old, you need a note from a parent giving you permission.

All girls track athletes are asked to stop by the North Campus Junior Study Hall on Wednesday, Dec 20th at 2:30 PM to meet our new head coach Allison Delzer. Coach Delzer has been a boys coach for Arrowhead for many years and we welcome her to her new position. Coach will review with the girls how they can stay ready for the track season with opportunities at Arrowhead over the winter. Underclassmen will be done by 2:45 PM and Seniors are asked to stay until 3:00 PM.
