

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Friday, December 15, 2017
"A" Day

The Word of the Week is esoteric (es-uh-ter-ik), an adjective that means understood by or meant for people with special knowledge or interest.

Book Club will meet today at 2:45 in room 164 at north campus. Join us for some holiday cheer and to talk about "Alias Grace" by Margaret Atwood.

Arrowhead is starting a writing club! The first meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 20th at 3:15 in room 199 at north campus. Please contact Rachel Kriehn or Sarah Lunow with any questions or concerns. Hope to see you there!

Attention psych club: Our next meeting is on Monday, December 18 at 2:45 in room N189. We will be learning about hypnosis from guest speaker Paul Knight. There will also be a demonstration for those who want to be hypnotized. If you're interested in being hypnotized and are under 18 years old, you need a note from a parent giving you permission.

All girls track athletes are asked to stop by the North Campus Junior Study Hall on Wednesday, Dec 20th at 2:30 PM to meet our new head coach Allison Delzer. Coach Delzer has been a boys coach for Arrowhead for many years and we welcome her to her new position. Coach will review with the girls how they can stay ready for the track season with opportunities at Arrowhead over the winter. Underclassmen will be done by 2:45 PM and Seniors are asked to stay until 3:00 PM.