DECA is an international association of high school and college students and teachers of marketing, management and entrepreneurship. The organization prepares leaders and entrepreneurs for careers and education in marketing, hospitality, management, and other business areas. The organization has over 275,000 members from over 3,500 schools throughout the world. Arrowhead DECA members gain valuable experiences in areas of career exploration, leadership development, and community service. To be a Arrowhead DECA member students must be enrolled in Marketing & Business, Sports & Entertainment, Sales & Advertising, or Entrepreneurship Courses. The chapter has helped raise over $300,000 for non-profit organizations the past 20+ years and sent over 400 students to international competition.
