"B" Day

On Friday, America lost a leader, activist, change-maker, equalizer, Justice, and feminist known as the Notorious RBG. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg had inspired a whole generation of women to do what they love. She fought for young women's dreams to become a reality. She not only argued for women's rights but for the men that would be discriminated against as well. The Justice devoted her life toward studying law to find ways to legally make men and women equal. This dedication is highlighted by the fact that she was always carrying a pocket Constitution in her bag at all times. Ruth Bader Ginsberg lived a life fighting for the change that we see today. She fought against the laws and won. She was faced with challenges and overcame them like no other. She was the leading women's rights litigator in American history. Her legacy will forever remain prominent.

Investment Club will have its first meeting Tuesday, September 22 at North Campus, Room 145, at 2:45 - 3:30. If unable to attend, please email Mrs. Klun or Mrs. Schwartz of your interest.

Looking for some help in Math? SASS Math tutors are available to help you in the North Campus Library. Tutoring will be available from 1st through 10th hour on Tuesday and Thursday, and Wednesday after school until 4 PM. Don't let those math problems overwhelm you, get some help from one of the SASS Math Tutors.

The Arrowhead, our school's newspaper, is a great place to hear about news around the school, whether it's upcoming school events, sports or opinion pieces. You can find it all at thearrowhead.org or by visiting the school's website and clicking on resources. If you have ideas or suggestions for articles, email newspaper@arrowheadschoools.org and we can look into it. There's new articles every Friday so make sure to check it out at thearrowhead.org

The Arrowhead literary magazine needs your submissions! Any student can submit and we accept poetry, essays, and photography. Submissions can be sent to the ligmag@arrowheadschoools.org throughout the school year, in order to be featured in the school's annual literary magazine. The literary magazine is a collection of creativity and we can't wait to see and read what the class of 2020-2021 has to offer. For more information, see Joanne Brack and Rachel Gebhard or email litmag@arrowheadschoools.org
